

FABER-CASTELL

C O S M E T I C S

Faber-Castell Cosmetics is part of the Faber-Castell Group and as a partner in the international cosmetics industry belongs to the leading private label manufacturers of decorative cosmetics. Based on its own developments and innovative technologies, the company manufactures high-quality products for face, eyes, lips and nails. With almost 800 employees worldwide, production facilities in Germany, USA and Brazil as well as sales agencies in 13 countries, we are a globally active company. Faber-Castell Cosmetics is a modern, creative company with the aim of always being the first choice for its customers.

For Faber-Castell Cosmetics in Stein near Nuremberg we are looking with immediately effect for a

SPECIALIST SALES & PROJECTMANAGEMENT (m/w/d)

TASKS

- Independent processing and handling of customer projects and orders
- Customer support and proactive consulting and negotiation during project planning
- Support with the preparation of offers
- Independent pre-negotiation of contracts
- Independent and autonomous creation of product specifications
- Support with budgeting in coordination with sales management
- Documentation within the scope of project processing
- Master data maintenance

PROFILE

- Very good knowledge of project management
- Fluent Business English, both written and spoken; other language skills an advantage
- Very good experience with MS Office; SAP knowledge is desirable
- Strong assertiveness as well as demonstrated effective verbal and written communication skills
- High level of care and accuracy
- Strong customer orientation

If you are interested in this challenging position, please apply online stating your salary expectations and availability.

Your contact person: Frau Nicole Moertel, Manager Human Resources, 0911/9965 5536